

Cadet Prayer Calendar 2017

This is your chance to start or add to your prayer list. You can help by praying for the ministry of the Calvinist Cadet Corps each day of the month.

1 Larry and Nora DeHaan Larry is the president of the Calvinist Cadet Corps and chairs the 2017 International Camporee steering committee.	13 The Cadet Ministry in New Zealand There are only eight clubs on the two islands of New Zealand, but they have been faithful for many years.	23 Cadre Counselors Pray that cadre counselors will build Godly relationships with boys and help their Cadets grow more Christlike in all areas of life.
2 Steve and Cheryl Bootsma Steve is the executive director of the Corps and editor of Cadet Quest and other publications.	14 Cadeting in Other Foreign Countries There are independent clubs in various countries. Please pray for them as they minister in isolated areas.	24 Potential Counselors God knows the men He has gifted and chosen to work with boys and young men. Pray that the men He has chosen will have a desire to serve Him in this manner.
3 Bob and Manette deJonge Bob is the art director, programming assistant, photographer, and webmaster.	15 Sponsors of African Cadet Clubs We try to match up each African club with a North American sponsor, whether that sponsor is a Cadet club or a council. Please pray for wisdom regarding communication and financing as the different cultures work together.	25 Individual Cadets Pray that each boy in Cadets becomes more conformed to the image of Christ this season. Pray for each Cadet you know by name.
4 Sarah and Joshua Stuitje Sarah is the office administrator at Corps headquarters and an assistant designer for publications.	16 Developers of Counselor Education Nearly 100 active DCEs are training counselors in their respective councils.	26 Wives of Counselors It's not only counselors who sacrifice for cadeting. Pray for the wives, who sacrifice family time to let the ministry grow.
5 Mary and Dick Broene Mary is a secretary in the Corps of office and mother of three and grandmother of four. Dick is the retired director of the CCC and the interim training coordinator.	17 Quartermasters The quartermasters' job is to stay up to date on every tool that cadeting offers to enhance the ministry, and to keep their respective councils informed on what's available.	27 Dynamic Youth Ministries Pray for the GEMS Girls' Clubs and Youth Unlimited, who together with Cadets make up the three ministries of DYM.
6 Kim and Titus Keller Kim is a secretary for the Cadet Corps and mom to three girls.	18 The International Camporee The single most significant CCC event is the international camporee, which occurs once every three years. Please pray for the team from the South Dakota – Minnesota – Iowa area as they plan for the 2017 International Camporee. Also pray for the group from Michigan planning the 2020 camporee.	28 Finances The ministry of cadeting costs more than churches give in offerings and pay for supplies. Please pray that God will provide for all our financial needs.
7 Jim and Cindi Hoekstra Jim is our Corps chaplain, and will also lead the chaplain team at the 2017 international camporee.	19 Visioning Team The executive committee has established this group to help the CCC with long range planning. Pray that God will indeed give them vision and wisdom.	29 Congressmen and Congress Congressmen represent the CCC to their local clubs and their local clubs to the CCC through communication and promotion. Congress is the board of directors of the Cadet Corps, involving congressmen from all over North America. Pray for vision, wisdom, and unity in the decision making process at their annual meetings in January.
8 Bert and LaVonne Bakhuyzen Bert represents the Cadet Corps as club consultant to the independent clubs throughout North America.	20 The International Convention Conventions bring counselors and their families together for inspiration, education, and fellowship. Please pray that potential hosts step forward with an invitation for 2018 and beyond.	30 New (First Year) Counselors Pray that new counselors will grasp the importance of their calling and respond to God and the boys in positive and effective ways.
9 Daniel and Caroline Nandwa Daniel coordinates the efforts of all the Kenyan Cadet clubs.	21 Executive Committee These nine men monitor operations and make decisions between the annual board meetings (Congress).	31 Personal Growth If we are to grow and succeed as a ministry, we need to ask God to help us do so. Pray for yourself and others within the Cadet ministry to have a closer walk with God and to hear his continued call.
10 Regional Training Coordinators There are eight regions in North America and each one has an unpaid training coordinator whose job it is to see that the educational needs of counselors are being met. Pray for their diligence and success.	22 Head Counselors Please pray for head counselors, who accept responsibility for running the Cadet clubs in their churches.
11 The Cadet Ministry in Kenya Begun in 2006, Cadets has grown to more than 70 clubs in the Reformed Church of East Africa and other denominations.
12 The Cadet Ministries in Australia Please pray for the strength of cadeting in Australia, where it has gone on for nearly 50 years.
